

Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This propoganda campaign does not serve the public interest. It is a transparent attempt by the Bush Administration, with the tacit approval of this Commission, to turn the public airwaves into a Republican propaganda arm.

I do not expect any responsive action from a Commission that is more concerned about a second of partial nudity than the consolidation of public airwaves in the hands of corporate criminals.